

Cameron Mejia

Analyst

Cameron Mejia is an Analyst on the Investment Team at Mercury Fund where he focuses on due diligence and portfolio operations as well as community building. Prior to Mercury, he spent summers working at BlackRock in their Fixed Income group and at Vista Equity Partners as a Private Equity summer analyst.

The proud son of small business owners in his hometown of Chapel Hill, NC, Cameron is passionate about developing Middle America's entrepreneurial ecosystem and partnering with visionaries on the cutting edge.

Cameron received a BA in Global Affairs from Yale University where he was in Pierson College.